

Senior George Espana

Nominated by: Ms. Hayes

I would like to nominate George for the successful start he's had to his senior year here at Guerin. Overall he is doing well academically, but he is also aware of where he has struggles and is always working to improve which shows maturity and a desire to succeed. George is also one of those students who comes in everyday and wishes me a good morning and says goodbye when he leaves. While this may seem like a small thing, it's just another reflection of his character and the good person he is.

Senior Paige Hudson

Nominated by: Ms. Giacotto

I would like to nominate Paige for her magnificent directing of "1000 Cranes" a gift to Guerin Prep! Her casting, directing and staging of the performance was powerful, meaningful and amazing! Her dedication and passion for theatre is contagious and everyone at Guerin Prep who attended the performance was witness to her genius on stage. Bravo to her cast and everyone involved.

Junior Jimmy Tambakos

Nominated by: Ms. Giacotto

I would like to nominate Jimmy for his dedication to our French Shadow Day. Jimmy was first on the scene for our late start day which required him to be at school 80 minutes before the official start of school. He did a fantastic job of mingling with our prospective Freshmen and helping everyone feel welcome and enjoy their crepe breakfast. As a French Club Officer, I know I can count on him for anything. Jimmy is organized, responsible and proud of his role in our club which sets an excellent example for his peers.

Junior Maddie Bartoli

Nominated by: Ms. Giacotto

I would like to nominate Maddie for managing the cash box during French Week. The daily duties were somewhat stressful finding time to meet the Business Office Manager with only 3 minute passing periods and making sure the cash box was safe between the lunch periods. She was extremely reliable and responsible and took many laps around the school to insure the money we raised was in good hands.

Sophomore Yunus Yilmaz*Nominated by: Mr. Fiedler

After basketball tryouts/practice he was locked out of the hall where his locker was located, as he was trying to get his coat and I'm doubtful that he realized we lock up the halls after 4pm. He very courteously asked me to get him in the hallway. Once there he kept messing up the lock combination and asked if I could help him with that. He was very appreciative of the assistance. Ever since then he waves and say "hello sir" whenever he sees me. Seems like a really nice young man.

Sophomore Karen Gutierrez*Nominated by: Ms. Giacotto

Karen had a beautiful reflection for Thanksgiving. She is an excellent example of self-discipline and determination and gratitude, Karen has an amazing work ethic and courage to explore new methods. She is creative and collaborative and sharing her reflection is part of her generosity of spirit

Freshman Victor Reap*Nominated by: Ms. Hayes

I have not had a lot of interaction with Victor, but that has not stopped me from realizing him as one of the kindest, most polite, most caring students I've come across in my career. Victor's locker is right outside my room, and anytime he sees me he gives me a huge smile and hello-it's the kind of greeting that makes you smile back even when you are having a bad day! I have also spoken with some of Victor's teachers, and they have nothing but wonderful things to say, both about his academics, but also about that wonderful personality he has! Victor works hard, keeps his grades up, helps out his peers and as was said in a conversation with one of his teachers, just radiates pure joy!

Freshman Alexandra Lomba*Nominated by: Ms. Lombardo

Alexandra is a very hard-working student who turns in high-quality assignments and projects that go above and beyond my expectations as her teacher. She is polite and friendly and well-respected among her peers. When a student needs additional assistance, she does not hesitate to help them out. Her participation in class is outstanding as she has a great memory and recalls facts with ease.
