

Alyssa Beltrame

Ms. Lombardo

Alyssa is a student who is polite and courteous. She really shows Guerin Spirit by greeting everyone in the hallways. She takes initiative and is not hesitant about asking for help when it is needed. She is a wonderful student to have in my classroom and a role model for many students at Guerin.

Brian Guevara

Ms. Hayes

Right from the start of the year Brian got involved and quickly became part of the Guerin family. He helped out at Guerin Fest as one of the student greeters at the entrances and helped us to secure donations from those attending the fest. He did this with enthusiasm, a big smile and a great attitude. It was great to see Brian jump right in and get involved, and I hope that is something he will continue to do!

Natalie Adorno

Ms. Hayes

Natalie is a true ambassador for Guerin, and shows her school pride all the time. She's always a smiling face in the hallway and the first one willing to help whenever it is needed. Natalie is a great part of the Guerin community and I can't wait to see all that she accomplishes this year!

Adair Zou

Ms. Susin

Adair has made great strides with his English and has become a great addition to our Health discussions. He also is my number one Badminton participant in his PE class. He has worked very hard to learn our language and customs.

Mya Gentry

Ms. Watts

Mya has exhibited great patience, understanding, and care in the art classes, Art I and Photography. She is always willing to help others, keep the group on task, and offer guidance and opinions to help better peers' work. Mya has enthusiasm for photography and brings in a positive attitude with her everyday. She has been showing great potential as an innovative visual artist and I can't wait to see what other new creative art pieces she will share with us this year.

Simon Armoush

Ms. Skowron

Simon exhibits one of the traits of our theme of “Everything Matters” --courtesy. In a world in which common courtesy seems to be on the wane with everyone so involved with his/her cell phone, Simon begins each class with a cheery greeting, looking me directly in the eye. He always wishes me a good day or a good weekend (on Friday) as he leaves. I notice that he extends the same courtesy not only to me, but to his fellow classmates. He is always ready to give an assisting hand when someone needs help--sometimes even helping without being asked. These qualities make him an exemplary Guerin student.

Ashley Zanders

Ms. Lombardo

I can't imagine how difficult a transition to transfer to a different high school senior year can be, however Ashley is handling the transition rather well. Because of her interest in government outside of the classroom, she was among the first people I thought would make an excellent student of the month. She's not only insightful and intelligent but remarkably passionate about academic and government as a whole. She is a well-rounded individual who is gracious and respectful to all faculty members here at Guerin Prep.

Mack Gonzalez

Mrs. Campbell

My first week as Manager of Alumni and Special Events was the start of Guerin Fest. I was personally overwhelmed trying to learn names, procedures and get everything the way it was supposed to be. On the first day of the Fest I was carrying a bunch of things across the campus to the Alumni tent, when a very nice student offered to help me. The kind act came out of nowhere. Just someone wanting to help. That student was Mack Gonzalez! It was then I realized that this was going to be a great place to work. Not only did Mack help me on that particular day, he continued to ask if I needed anything the rest of the Fest! Now when I see Mack in the halls, he always has a smile and says hi. Everytime I see Mack I am reminded that I need to pay it forward and do something nice for someone. I think that Mack exemplifies the kind of character that Guerin College Prep is trying to portray. His positive attitude, willingness to help, respect, enthusiasm and integrity confirm to me that he is going places in the world!!!!
