ANNUAL TALENT SHOW TAKES A NEW TWIST AT GUERIN PREP

With the movies as a theme, more than 100 students will take the stage Saturday, Feb. 23 at 7 p.m. at Guerin College Preparatory High School for the school's annual talent show.

All 20 acts are tied in some way to a movie theme, including selections from such popular movies as "High School Musical" and Dreamgirl and feature performances by dancers, gymnasts, instrumentalists and vocalists.

It will be the first time in more than 20 years that Vickie Perri, dance teacher at Guerin Prep will not be coordinating the show. Perri retired at the end of the last school year, and the school's Student Life Council, under the direction of Ms. Shannon Pearce, assumed leadership of the show. They have been assisted by Ms. Sandy Kozlowski, Guerin Prep's music instructor and choir director.

"After 20 years, we have a hard act to follow," Mrs. Kozlowski explained, "but the students are working very hard to make it their own."

2—Guerin Prep Talent Show

As always the audience will be treated to a few surprises from the school's faculty performers, including an appearance by Elvis.

Many of the students who will be performing are members of Guerin Prep's dance clubs as well as students involved in Guerin Prep's fine arts department, including band, string ensemble, choir, piano, violin, theater and acting.

Admission to the talent show is $6 per person.
