KIDS take the STAGE

Sponsored by Guerin College Preparatory High School

If you enjoy meeting or entertaining people, hanging out with friends, dancing, acting, singing, laughing or having fun; KIDS take the STAGE is the place for you!!!

What is KIDS take the STAGE?

KIDS take the STAGE is a theatre class sponsored by Guerin College Preparatory High School in order to teach students in Grades 5-8 a little more about theatre and how to produce a play.

Who can come?

Any student in Grades 5-8 can attend the class.

Who is in charge?

Kristen Mackie, the Theatre Director at Guerin College Preparatory High School will teach the class. Sandy Kozlowski, our director of music, and current Guerin theatre students will assist Ms. Mackie.

Why should I?

Being at KIDS take the STAGE has many advantages. You can learn great new skills like communication, discipline, and teamwork, but most of all, you get to meet exciting new people and make new friends...and it is so much fun!!

What will I be doing?

Students will have classes in acting, dance, and music. In April the class will have a public performance.

Classes

Classes will be held Tuesdays beginning February 4th and will run through Tuesday, April 22, 2008. The class will be 4:00- 5:30 PM. On Tuesday, April 22, 2008 there will be a performance for the public at 7:00 PM.

What is needed?

Please fill out the registration form and send it along with the course fee. The fee is $100. Please make checks out to Guerin College Preparatory High School.
